About the Scholarship

In partnership with UCSD Extension's Global Lactation Alliance Program, SDCBC offers scholarships for community leaders who are pursuing LEC or IBCLC education in order to increase lactation support in underserved communities. Each year the Coalition will announce several scholarship opportunities and select individuals vividly exhibiting a passion to serve San Diego families.

The applicant may pursue education through the UCSD Extension Program which offers a Lactation Education Counselor course throughout the year on the following dates:

1. June 2022, Course Dates: 6/27/2022 - 9/3/2022

These courses consist of online lectures and monthly live webinars with UCSD Extension Instructors and world renowned experts in the field of Lactation. Registration is granted with pre-approval by the department contingent on the candidate meeting all program requirements.
